

If I were a boy, even just for a day
I'd roll outta bed in the morning
And throw on what I wanted, then go.

Read books with the guys
Play sports with the girls
I'd spend money where I wanted
And I'd never get confronted for it
'Cause it's not just for men

*If I were a boy
I think I could understand
How it feels to be an equal
A woman is as good as a man*

I'd go out to work
'Cause I know how it hurts
When you want to be a doctor
An MP or a lawyer
But you're told that you can't be employed

If I were a boy
I would ride on a bike
Tear off this awful corset
I could play sport whenever I like

I'd put myself first
And make rules as I go
'Cause I'd get to make some choices
Waiting in line to go vote, to go vote

*If I were a boy
I think I could understand
How it feels to be an equal
A woman is as good as a man*

But I'm just a girl...

*Kate speaking [light focused on her]:
But I'm going to change that.... Yes, I'm going to change that!
[walks off to Vote - head held high, chest out - ready with her vote held up]*
